

Accredited Buyer Representative

Buying a home is no small matter. Besides being the largest financial transaction you may ever undertake, it's probably also the most complex. There are many good reasons to work with a qualified Real Estate professional - especially a trained professional who has earned the Accredited Buyer's Representative ABR® designation. This is an assurance that you will be represented by an ABR Realtor® member who will provide you with quality Buyer services.

When you work with an ABR® representative, you'll be served, not sold. The Buyer interests will become the ABR agent interests. In addition, you'll be working with someone who has gone the extra mile by completing specialized training in delivering the best in Buyer-representation services to you. Always know that a REALTOR® who has an ABR® Designation also has an established track record with proven experience in Buyer representation.

The ABR® Designation is awarded through the Real Estate Buyer's Agent Council or REBAC, which was founded in 1988 to promote superior buyer-representation skills and services. REBAC is an affiliate of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR).
